SHE DROPPED DEAD!

A Young Wife and Mother Goes Without Warning.

Mrs. Will Whitted Dies Suddenly Early This Afternoon.

A TENDER INFANT SURVIVES HER

People Who Come and Go—Brief Brevities of Interest to All Readers of The Globe.

The entire community received a shock this afternoon when the news spread over the city that Mrs. Will Whitted had dropped dead.

The news was brought up town by a servant, who came in haste about the time people were getting their noon mail from the postoffice, and who, in her anxiety and affright, enquired of all whom she met if they had seen Mr. Whitted, who had returned an hour before to his post at the Fidelity bank.

Mr. Whitted lives on Morris street in the house with Mr. Bun Whitted, and on leaving home after the noon meal noticed in his wife no indications of such an attack. She was to all appearances as well as usual, in good spirits and with all to make life pleasant and desirable before her.

About 2 o'clock she felt a sudden rush of blood to her head, and fell over, dying almost instantly.

Deceased was twenty years old, and both as a young lady and since her marriage has always been a great favorite in Durham, where she has lived since childhood, and where as Molly Thomas, she was known and loved by all.

About a year ago she was married to Mr. Will Whitted, a young man in every way calculated to make her happy, and the pair started life with the most flattering prospects. Six weeks ago an infant was born to them, which survives the young mother, a circumstance which adds additional sadness to the sorrow of her sudden taking off.

The fond young husband is crushed by the cruel blow, as are other near relatives and friends, who have the heartfelt sympathy of all in this their dark hour of sudden bereavement.

Funeral to-morrow afternoon from residence.

The many testimonials received daily by the proprietors of Salvation Oil, emphasizing its value as a cure for neuralgia and rheumatism, furnish convincing proof of its great merits. It is par excellence the liniment.

My DEAR SIR—I thank you very much for your congratulations. At present the applicants for office are giving me more trouble than the Indians!

Very truly yours, at the expense of the Body. While we drive the brain we must build up the body. Exercise, pure air—foods that make healthy flesh—refreshing sleep—such are methods.
